DIVISION OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

PARKING PERMIT GUIDELINES

- Everyone (excluding visitors who park in metered spaces or areas) must obtain and display a permit to park anywhere on campus at any time. Short-term and temporary permits are available for those with short-term business on campus or for students who must switch out cars for any reason, e.g., using their parents' car.
- A portion of the Brooks Center parking lot is reserved for non-student and non-employee patrons during special events (see designation lot C-11).
 - Please note: Any vehicle, person or permit with three or more past-due citations may not park on campus.
 - In the event your vehicle breaks down in an unauthorized space or you need to load or unload near a building, you should contact Parking & Transportation Services during business hours or the Clemson University Police Department after hours for special permission and assistance.
 - Clemson operates under revised parking regulations on game days. Check the Athletics website and Game Day information on the Parking & Transportation website for more information.
 - If you park anywhere other than a marked space, your vehicle may be towed.
 - Towed vehicles may be retrieved 24/7 from the Clemson University Police Department.
 - Rules are enforced year-round, including days when classes are not in session.
 - All unexpired parking permits and decals remain the property of Clemson University. Any person to whom a decal has been issued shall remove the decal from the vehicle when the vehicle is sold or traded. Failure to do so will result in citations being automatically linked to your account.

- Please visit clemsun.edu/parking to review the following in their entirety:
- Parking Map
 - Parking Rules and Regulations
 - Manage My Account (view citations, pay citations, appeal citations)
 - Permit Placement

- For permit guidelines, carpool group applications and more information, visit clemsun.edu/parking.

DAILY PARKING PERMITS

- Students, faculty and staff who regularly walk, bike or take transit to campus may purchase daily parking permits for $3/day when vehicle access is needed. Purchase online at clemsun.edu/parking, print and display on dashboard.

METERED PARKING

- Visitors and Clemson University parking permit holders (CUPH) may pay to park in the designated multi-space metered areas under these guidelines:
- Everyone (excluding visitors who park in metered spaces) must obtain and display a permit to park anywhere on campus at any time.
 - Hours of Operation: 7 a.m.–10 p.m., seven days a week.
 - Visitors – No permit required: "Three-Hour Visitor Meter Limit" or as otherwise posted.
 - CUPH: park for the "One-Hour CU Permit Limit" or as otherwise posted. Please note: some meters are for "Visitors Only" and may not be used by a CUPH.

ACCESSIBLE PARKING

- Anyone who displays a state-issued disability parking permit in order to park on the campus of Clemson University is required to register the permit with the Parking and Transportation Services office prior to use on campus. Students, faculty, staff and vendors are required to purchase and display a campus parking permit, even when displaying a disability access parking permit. The request to register the state-issued permits prior to use is expected to reduce the incident of unauthorized use, thereby increasing access to disability access parking space by legitimate users. Please contact Parking and Transportation Services to register your ADA permit.

- Student temporary disability permits, valid up to four weeks, may be obtained with prior approval from Student Accessibility Services (SAS). To obtain approval for a temporary permit, please first call SAS at 864-656-6848 or visit them in Suite 239 in the Class of '56 Academic Success Center.

- Employee temporary disability permits may be obtained with prior approval from the Office of Access and Equity. To obtain approval for a temporary permit, please call the Office of Access and Equity at 864-656-3553 or visit them in 223 Brackett Hall. Parking and Transportation Services does not review or accept any medical documentation.
